

The Faith Mission in QUEBEC

Over these past five years, God has been opening doors to summer children's and youth ministry in Quebec. He has also been speaking to me, during my own time spent with Him, about coming to Quebec as a full time missionary. I have to admit there have been times when I thought it would not be possible. When should I go? Where should I live? Who will I work with? These are questions that seemed so uncertain. Good news is that we have an all-knowing and loving God who has a best plan for those who believe and follow Him. He is looking for those who are willing to wait and trust in Him. Although waiting and Trusting can be so hard to do, it's so worth it when you know that you are in the centre of His good, pleasing and perfect will. He has been faithful in showing me the next steps and providing everything I need for the next part of this journey.

I do appreciate your support in prayer. Please continue to pray with me as I move to Quebec with My new co-worker (Debra Hewitt) in early October. I am so looking forward to seeing all that God wants to do and is going to do.
